421 New Zealand Cross : Cons. Solomon Black, A.C., Jan. 1869 1

 This was one of the first of these very rare decorations distributed. It was conferred "For Gallant Conduct at the Siege of Ngatapa in January, 1869." This stronghold was taken, after a five days' siege, by a mixed force of Militia, Constabulary and natives under command of Col. (afterwards Maj.-Genl. Sir) G. S. Whitmore. The attack on the enemy's rear position was confided to Major Fraser, with nos. 1 and 3 Companies of the Armed Constabulary and some natives. The extreme right of the position, on a strong scarped ridge, was commanded by the enemy's rifle pits and works, and a lodgement was only effected after cutting out standing room with a pickaxe. The enemy made several sorties against this point, which was an essential one for attacking operations, but it was successfully held by a party of twelve volunteers to the end of the siege, though at some loss. The most conspicuous of these twelve brave defenders were Constables Black and Biddle.
